

SUBJECT	Geography		YEAR	13
Why do we study geography? The Geography curriculum provides students with the knowledge to understand and better care for the world around them. We develop an appreciation of real-world issues, broaden awareness of how they impact our lives, and provide practical skills to engage with geographical challenges and support future careers.
What you will learn this year	What you have learned before	Where you can read more
Physical Geography - Hazards
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The concept of hazard in a geographical context • Plate tectonics • Volcanic hazards • Seismic hazards • Storm hazards • Fires in nature • Case studies 	KS3 & GCSE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Natural hazards, earthquakes & volcanic eruptions, effects & responses, differing levels of wealth, global atmospheric circulation, tropical storms, UK weather hazards, climate change 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • USGS website • BBC News, The Guardian, Independent – up to date hazard events • National Geographical – search for the hazards you are interested in Human Geography – Global Systems and Global Governance
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Globalisation • Global systems • International trade and access to markets • Global governance • The ‘global commons’ • Globalisation critique • Quantitative and qualitative skills 	KS3 & GCSE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources – access to supplies, location of resources • Plastic pollution – the high seas, scale of problem of ocean plastic and solutions including SDG. • Development and globalisation – measuring development, SDG and MDG, the role TNC’s play in globalisation and exploitation. • Antarctica – location, use and future • Population and migration – flows of people. • The changing economic world – differing levels of development and strategies to reduce the gap. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cool Antarctica • Global Challenges Foundation – What is Global Governance • World Trade Organisation • United Nations website – have a read to gain a general understanding of what they do 		