

SUBJECT	Philosophy and Ethics		YEAR	7
Why do we study Philosophy and Ethics? Philosophy and Ethics provides students with rich knowledge to understand a wide range of religions and worldviews. This enables them to develop their own beliefs, values and identity preparing them to make sense of their place in our multi-religious, multi-secular society.
What you will learn this year		What you have learned before		Where you can read more
The Island : Introduction to World Religions
Learning to live as a diverse island community Creating: rules and responsibilities a commitment ceremony and group identity ways to respond to life events celebrations of who we are	Exploring different religions within our community Eucharist – living as a community What affects our journey through life Sacrament of the sick	The Kids Book of World Religions by Jennifer Glossop Novels: The Coral Island by R.M. Ballantyne Lord of the Flies by William Golding
Worship: What Matters to me
What matters to me and others Introduction to Worship and World religions Exploring the concept of God Worship in Islam and Buddhism Creating My Artefact for Life Exploring Sacred Spaces	Looking at similarities and difference between world religions The Nature of God in Christianity Visits to places of worship eg Mosque Virtual visits to places of worship	The Boy with the Topknot by Sathnam Sanghera Novel: The Garden of My Imaan by Farhana Zia Check out Mindfulness exercises and tips - Mind – this section includes colouring in activities also Judaism
What it's like to be Jewish Key Jewish beliefs Significance of Sacred Texts The Story of Moses Festival of Pesach	Key Beliefs in Islam Sacred text – The Bible Beliefs into Action in the world	Key Facts about Judaism BBC Bitesize KS3 My Jewish Learning website Visit the Jewish Museum London		